Uncle Tony, you were an inspiration to me, because you not only talked the talk, you followed up by walking the walk. Well done faithful servant. See you someday on the other shore.

Tony was an inspirational leader at PCA and I deeply appreciate all the hymns I learned from him when he was the worship leader. I teach many of these same songs to our students here at Adult & Teen Challenge!

I want to send my sincere condolences to you all. I would love visiting with Tony at lunch or dinner at Bellevue when going to see my father, John Church. Tony also lived next door to him so he would help remind our dad when it was time to eat when he first moved in. I would accompany my dad to activities and he loved the wii bowling. Tony was a great bowler! I would love listening to Tony talk about his family and Crucible. He was such a wonderful, sweet gentleman! May your found memories bring you peace. ❤️Lisa Church Esterguard
