“ Joe was the funniest person I knew and always made me laugh. We were working on my basement and he came over early at 7am. I accidentally left the garage door open from the night before so he just came in. He started yelling upstairs meanwhile I jump out of bed with no clothes on to see what it was and I had no clue who he was because he had a mask on! He literally scared me or pranked me anytime he could! He was laughing so hard he was crying! I will never forget that laugh of Joey's and I will cherish the time and bond we built throughout the years forever. I will continue to pray for the entire family and I know god will bless them with strength and healing.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to you Joanne and your family for a great loss of your wonderful husband Joey, father of your children and grandpa to others. He was also my rock and would never say no if we needed his help for whatever reason, I don't know how I would have made it in my life without him by my side. At this moment in your lifetime you may feel that your all alone and your loss is something no one else has ever known but with your memories ,thoughts and prayers this may comfort you and show you that your really not alone. R.I. P Joey our love in our hearts will never ever fade. Love you now + forever Sister Carol (Brzostek) + Brother-law Fred Kucharski

“ My first memory of Joe was at Sandy and Joe's wedding, it pored that day and we drove together to the reception. While driving, Joe wouldn't use the wipers because he bought rainex and said we didn't need it. I white knuckled it the whole way there and he just laughed that giggle laugh he had at me the whole time...needless to say we made it..

Anthony and I considered him and your whole family our family and loved him very much. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all!!

Love always,. Sue and Anthony
