

AGNES (MALECKI) CAMPAGNONI

June 3, 1924 - October 17, 2020

Agnes (Malecki) Campagnoni passed away Saturday October 17th in Williamsville. She was born in Syracuse in 1924 to the late Joseph and Frances (Malinowski) Malecki. She lived in Solvay for most of her life. She was a homemaker and a loving grandmother. She made it through the depression, World War II and COVID-19 with great strength and perseverance. She loved her little abode on the lake where she resided with her husband for 40 years. She loved watching the boats, ducks, and her beautiful garden.

She was predeceased by husband Ernest in 2011 and son, Robert in 1977. She is survived by her daughter, Sandy (Joe) Moyer, of Amherst; a daughter-in-law, Frances Campagnoni; four grandchildren, John (Malerie), Michael, Eryne, and Adam; 4 great grandchildren, Sarah, John, WendyRose and great-great grandchild, Jaxtyn and sister, Jane Kenyon.

A private memorial service was held for the immediate family due to Covid restrictions at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay. Burial followed in Woodlawn Cemetery, Syracuse.

In lieu of flowers please donate to a charity of your choice.
