“ We were next door neighbors with the Forgers on Hall Ave. in Solvay in the 1950s and 1960s. Aggie was a young mother in her 20s and 30s and what a hoot she was! Funny, cheerful, happy, always a wonderful presence. I send my love and deepest condolences to her family for their loss of her.

“ *Sincere condolences to Grace and all the family. "Mrs. Forger" was such a nice and funny woman, and a good friend to my mother. I was happy to be your guest so many times next door, in Liverpool, and out in Cleveland. So sad for you all.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the Forger Family. Mrs. Forger's warm smile, gentle voice, and fun-loving ways come to mind when I think of your mother. I am grateful to have wonderful childhood memories of Mr. and Mrs. Forger's generosity of time and kindness given to us as family friends. We were a lucky bunch to have been in the presence of such grace and light. All my love, Kathleen Bigsby

“ I am going to miss my Aunt Agnes so much. She called herself my "other mother" and she truly was. I was so blessed to have her and Uncle Dick in my life. I will miss our phone calls, going to camp and having tea on Fridays when I brought her fish when Dickie was no longer there. She told me she missed him so much and talked to him every day. I think like my dad she died of a broken heart. But they are together again for eternity. Thank you for all you did for me since the day I was born. And please give Grandma and Dad a big hug and someday we will all be together again. I think I can hear the accordian playing and the singing already. 💖 Patty Fitz
