“ I have the sweetest memories of hanging laundry behind their house on Geddes. And Aunt Agnes's laugh, and her cookies every Christmas... She was kind and good. And I miss her. <3 Rachel Franzese

She was a dear friend and will be greatly missed. May God rest her soul in peace.

“ Agnes & Joe rented the upstairs apartment of our home when they were first married - my brother Jess & I remember them so very well. Thru the years our family kept in touch with them as cherished friends. We even became friends with their lovely daughter Linda. In years past both our families attended St. Brigid's Church.

Linda, please accept my brother Jess' & my deepest sympathies. Agnes was a caring & friendly lady. I still remember her happy laugh. We were so fortunate to know both her & Joe.

Loosing both parents is difficult - but they will always be with you in spirit - still looking after you and you family.

Love & prayers .. Jess & Mary Anne Venditti
