“ Dear Chris.....I was shocked and saddened to hear your Mother passed away She was one of the most sweetest women I have ever met. I have some happy memories of the many years we worked together at St. Cecilia's annual garage sale. We really had a lot of fun. Hopefully, the love and support from your family and friends will help you through this trying time. May you find comfort and peace from the happy memories you have of her. Unfortunately, I cannot come to the calling hour as I am in California visiting Nancy and her family. I am truly sorry for your loss. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Aunt Angela was one of my mom's closest relatives. Mom was her Godmother and they shared a special relationship over several miles. Their mothers were sisters, Zia in Solvay and Nona in Detroit. Their Italian heritage and devotion to their Catholic faith was the base of their life long connection. I have many fond memories of both visits to Solvay and the Matticio's visiting us in Detroit. AA was always smiling and would always worry about Mark, Christine and David getting hurt when we would play outside together. My mom would say to her, "Basta Angela, they are having fun." AA loved her children dearly. I know she is the happiest she has ever been now that she is with our Lord and all her loved ones that have gone before her.

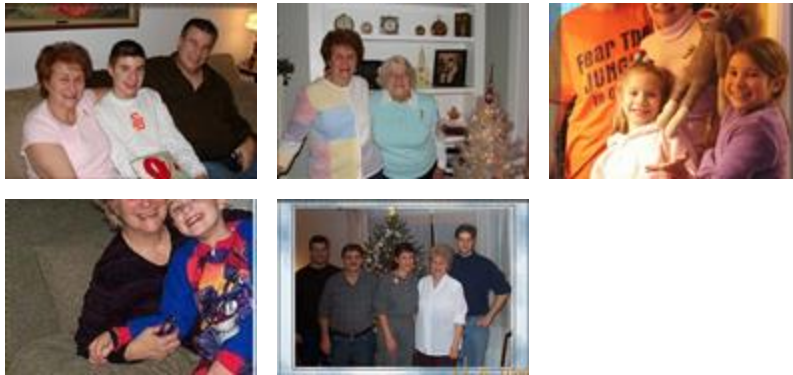

My love and prayers to all the Matticio family, Kathryn

P.s. She loved polenta!
