“ How do you describe a friend?

I mean a true friend who could fill your needs before you said a word! Someone who would just call to ask if I needed anything from a large wholesale store (BJ) that she and her husband were going into to East Syracuse they had a paid membership to. Anna got her license before I did & stopped to pick me up before you ever asked! You just cannot name all the things a friend does so you call them friend but truly more, they become family!

May God's peace and joy be with you now - May you rest well in the palm of His hand 🙏

All my love, Judy Pangborn
