“ Tony and I were classmates in high school. I remember how caring and compassionate he was when I didn't make Varsity basketball...and he did. He was competitive, yet made time to care about others. God rest him.

“ I went to school with Tony from elementary thru graduation in January of 1956. He was always one of the nicest guy in my class. He had a gentle smile and personality. I will miss seeing him at Wegman's and Turning Stone.
Rest In Peace my long time friend.
