“ My deepest sympathy. May he rest in the company of his Ancestors and in the Loving arms of God! My siblings and I grew up down the street from Anthony. He was a good friend to my brother, Wendell Johnson. In a time of virulent racism against African Americans in our neighborhood and at our elementary school, Anthony was welcoming, loving, and full of humanity. God bless you Anthony!

Sue, so sorry for your loss. We enjoyed time with Tony when he would come in for prosthetic care. He had a gentle and kind way about him.
