

ANTONIO "TONY" PENALVA

October 22, 1928 - February 25, 2023

Antonio "Tony" B. Penalva, formerly of Solvay, NY, passed away on February 25, 2023 at home in the loving company of his wife of 63 years, Virginia, and his family. Tony, also known as "Mr. P" to many, was a loving and very giving man who spent much of his time with family and friends when he wasn't working in his garden or beautiful flower beds, especially his roses. He was also very proud of his pole beans and garlic plants and said a garden wasn't complete without them. He enjoyed traveling, visiting many places with his family, his favorite being the annual spring breaks in Myrtle Beach or the Solvay Seniors trips.

For many years he and his family visited the annual Portuguese festival of Fatima in Ludlow Massachusetts. He was a member of the Portuguese Men's Club and Solvay Seniors. Tony was also a huge Syracuse basketball fan.

Antonio was predeceased by his parents, Jeremias Penalva and Conceicao Belino, brothers, Fernando, Manuel, Alfredo, and sisters, Emilia and Safira.

He is survived by his loving wife, Virginia (Costa) Penalva, daughter, Linda (Ted) Kiteveles, son, Luiz (Karen) Penalva, granddaughters, Shelby and Riley Kiteveles, and grandsons Bryan, Matthew, and Justin Penalva. He is also survived by his brother, Alberto Penalva and several nieces and nephews.

“ Tony & Virginia were wonderful.. My mom Annie Panelati would go to them for their reweaving and fixing garments. She loved them, and called them miracle people. I was fortunate to meet them several times. Virginia would call after my moms accident and ask about her. Rest in peace Mr. Penalva, heaven is getting a gem of a man.
