“ Tammy, Arnold and Sue.

My heart is broken along with yours. Arnold was a huge influence on me and was also like a second father to me. He marched with my Dad (Charlie Ragonese) and I also had the honor of marching with him for many years. He was one of the most professional people I have ever known and full of pride and dignity. He was also like a grandfather to my son C.J. I will always treasure the time we spent on car trips to the Brigadiers Alumni shows and parades. He will truly be missed. Heaven has gained a beautiful soul. With tears in my eyes and love in my heart, sending prayers to the family.

“ Condolences to the Zampi Family for the loss of Arnold, he will surely be missed by all.

I played along side him in the Syracuse Brigadiers in the lead soprano section. He was always a friend on and off the field. Will always remember the great times we all had together

“ Arnie was a fine gentleman. I enjoyed playing with Arnie in the Lyncourt Community Band. He sat in the row behind the clarinet section. He was a fine musician. Our social engagements were a fun group, and Arnie always participated. Blessings to the family, we'll miss him.

“ My dad, Donald A. Wahl, brought the Brigadiers back together in 1991... I knew only a small number of folks he associated with regularly in the Brigs, since I was away in the Marine Corps thru the '90's. My name is Christopher Wahl. My dad died of Lou Gerhigs disease in September '04. I have his Urn/ashes in this beautiful urn provided to me from the Brigs... They got this done with the help of Farrone and Sons. I post this because, I'm pretty certain, with the love your dad and my dad had of the Brigadier's... They knew each other well... My condolences to your family.

“ I had the privilege of marching with Arnold in the Brigadiers. This man was the embodiment of class, dignity and decorum. He was the role model of how to win, and more importantly, how to lose. The rest of us often looked to him as our moral "compass". Drum corps helped him endure the passing of his sweet wife. God rest him.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Arnold's passing. He was always very kind to me & another grandfather to my daughter Kayleigh. He was a respected member of the Brigadiers & we will always remember his pride & professionalism. May he be playing his horn in the front line, where he belongs! Love & Godspeed Arnie! Sue, I am so heartbroken I didn't get to see your Dad during his final days. He was a great father and grandfather, quiet but a great man. You are a great daughter always including him in your celebrations and taking good care of him. He will be missed forever. Deepest sympathies, Ellen, Mike and Mary.
