

CANDACE M. MIDGLEY

February 15, 1947 - October 30, 2021

Candace “Candy” Marie Midgley, 74, of Syracuse passed away peacefully at home on October 30, 2021. She was predeceased by her husband John Midgley, her parents Robert and Marjorie Dewey, two brothers, Gary and Robert Dewey, as well as a grandson, Jonathan Razmjou.

Candy is survived by her brothers Patrick (Geraldine) Dewey and David Dewey, her children, Michael Barrett, Theresa (Borzou) Razmjou, Jacqui (David) Aldinger, JJ (Veronica) Midgley, Timothy (Yoo-Sun) Midgley, and JP (Liz) Midgley. She also loved and was blessed by her many grandchildren: Jesse, Tyler, Lincoln, Regan, Kelvin, and Winston Midgley, Julian, Alea, and Sam Razmjou, Alyssa Barrett, Jacob, Matthew, Isaac, and Lucas Aldinger, as well as her great grandchildren Kai, Declan, and Seamus Midgley, and two beloved dogs, Hoops and Yo-Yo.

Candy filled many roles: wife, mom, grandma, nana, caregiver, nurse, and cheerleader for everyone who surrounded her. Her lifelong friends and passionate support of everyone who surrounded her are a testament to her loyalty, love, and compassion for others. As a stay at home mom, she would make daily trips to school delivering forgotten lunches, musical instruments, and missing homework. She was the busiest chauffeur ever and is remembered as such by her childrens’ friends. She was a people person, drawn to nurture and support and had an amazing gift of gab that could carry a conversation for hours. She was also a good listener, and everyone knew that when they needed a friend and a supportive ear, she was just a phone call away. She will continue to listen from above.

Candy and John built a beautiful family and life together and as big as our family felt; there was always room to include others. She loved people! Childhood friends became honorary family members, neighbors became lifelong friends, coworkers still considered her a friend long after her retirement. She loved a good party with great food, but nothing was more important to her than her people.

After raising her kids, Candy volunteered as an EMT with the Moyers Corners Ambulance in Clay, and went on to become an RN at Crouse Hospital working the overnight shift in the Emergency Room. Candy and her family praise all medical workers, especially those overnight owls. She remained a night owl until the end of her time on this earth. Working on her “to-do” lists into the wee hours of the morning was part of her daily routine. She was considered a “do-er” and made plans for trips big and small to spend time with friends and family and never turned down an invitation to a beach or restaurant.

Candy often referred to filling her “cup of grace”, and we all agree that her cup truly runneth over.

Her faith remained a guiding light in her life. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Hospitality Ministry at Holy Family Church.

At the end of our lives, we are left with memories of shared experiences. We would love for you to share your memories of Candy with us at <https://diem.life/mom>

It is time to rest easy, Mom, and enjoy your everlasting time with Dad.

“ Please accept our sympathy at the passing of your mom. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. I met you mom through LHS marching band and my husband knew your dad from school. Even though my son wasn't in band any more I traveled with her and Gerry lamatina to Michigan for a competition. She loved to have a great time and she was such a sweet person. I'm sure she's planning a good time in heaven!
