“ Donna,
We are so sorry for your loss. I knew Chuck for at least 30 of my 32 years at NPG. Chuck's office and mine were next to each other, and as the budget supervisor I worked closely with him. He came to volleyball parties and Halloween parties at our house.

I can still hear his boisterous, contagious laugh, and I hope that you can too. Though I didn't see him much after we both retired, I looked forward to catching up with him at our annual Christmas dinners. He was a funny, dedicated, and hardworking guy.

May he rest in peace.

“ R.I.P. my dear friend Charlie. Donna and family heartfelt prayers and love go out to you. Charlie was one of the kindest, giving, most loving and funny person I know. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. I will never forget our Christmas parties when the two of you would bring in literally cases of non-perishable food for the needy. May God Bless you and bring you Peace. Love from

“ Donna,

We are so sorry for your loss. Chuck was one of kind that could always bring a smile to your face.

I'm glad that I had the chance to work with Chuck at Chrysler's NPG/NVG/Magna facility. I can still remember seeing him gambling, I mean playing cards every day with the boys at lunch time in the cafeteria.

Chuck has fulfilled his obligations here on earth and has now moved on to his spiritual one.

May he rest in peace!

Sincerely,

Sharon & Ken Koliba

“ A dear friend has passed on and it makes me pause and remember the fun times we had working together for the Village of Solvay Parks Dept. Chuck was so full of life and had a great wit that I will remember forever. I'll miss him very much and my thoughts and prayers are with his entire family.

“ Donna, So sorry to hear about Chuck. He was a great guy. A lot of memories of him at NPG, golfing, and a bunch of "social" events. I think his favorite phrases were, "Donna do ya wanna" and "liar, liar, pants on fire. As a true Solvay guy, he always carried a knife! RIP Charlie. John Kinsella

Donna I don't know what to say other than I am so very sorry. I can't imagine how you feel after all you have been through the good, the bad and the ugly. The two of you were the type of couple that just fit together. Remember all the beautiful times you shared and keep them alive in your heart. He will always be there with you. I love you girl I'm here if you need me.

I will always remember the days when you and Charles lived with Gramma Clara We ran and played in the sun in the Twin Hills, ,buried dead birds, Played with dogs, Made things out of mud. we were so little. He was just a little boy. He could do a great imitation of Jerry Lewis.How I would laugh at him,he was so funny. I'll never forget Charles. Donna i'm so sorry for his loss.
