“ Your family probably does not know this but my mother, Elaine Carlton, went to Cheryl to get her hair done years ago and we have never forgotten the respect she treated my mother with. My mom had the chronic progressive version of MS and was in a wheelchair. For some reason, a lot of hair salons turned her away. But, not Cheryl. My mom and dad looked forward to their Saturday errands run that went on for years...and for a few of those years, a stop at the salon to visit with Cheryl for a little pampering was a part of those errands, every 6-8 weeks of course!

Love and prayers to your family. We will be forever grateful for Cheryl's kindness and friendship during those visits.

“ Peace and condolences to all of Cheryl’s family from North Carolina. I literally have known Cheryl my entire life and always saw her as such a bright light. When we would have a chance to catch up, I could only see that beautiful young girl with a smile made of perfect pearls, and I would stop her mid sentence to comment on just how beautiful she was, she glowed from the inside out. When Cheryl and I would wrap up our chat, I always was left feeling brighter for her sharing her light. What a gift she had. She will remain that bright light in the sun, moon and the stars while she watches over and loves you all from above. Rest In Peace, beautiful one.

“ A beautiful person both inside and out. Endless amounts of energy that radiated out when you saw her. The smile. The full out laughs. The honesty. The love and concern for others. She had those qualities that you don't often find in one person. She will be missed by many of us who grew up together in Camillus. God speed Cheryl! My heartfelt sympathy to family and friends..may you find peace within the sadness. Sheila Quinell

Wishing you all peace from North Carolina. Cheryl was a bright light whenever I saw her. Her smile...I'd make her blush whenever I saw her and would comment on her gorgeous mouth full of pearls. What came out of that mouth (and her heart) was always pure, loving and meant to make the person she was speaking with feel better for chatting with her. She'll always be that light that you see in the sun, moon and stars above watching over and loving you all from above. God Bless.
