

CHRISTINE "CEE CEE" ANDREW

January 21, 1968 - January 4, 2022

Christine "Cee Cee" Andrew (Combs), went to be with God on Tuesday, January 4th. She collapsed at work doing what she loved best, taking care of "her little critters" at the CNYSPCA.

Born and raised in East Syracuse, Cee Cee graduated from East Syracuse-Minoa High School ('86) and was inducted into the ES-M Hall of Fame as part of their 1983 Varsity Soccer team's success. She also played volleyball and ran track. Cee Cee and her friends had a large impact on the school, staff, and each other's lives.

Cee Cee wore many hats in her life: owner of C2 Photography, the Solvay Bearcats' Athletic, School, and Community Photographer, and a Thirty-One consultant just to name a few. After volunteering at the CNYSPCA for 7 years, she joined the staff one year ago. Long known as the "bunny lady", there was not an animal that she didn't love (unless it was a snake!) and they loved her back. She also volunteered for the Syracuse Challenger Baseball program. Cee Cee is survived by her husband of 22 years, Michael, her father, Charles Combs (Lisa Holt), of East Syracuse, her brother, Chuck Combs, Jr (Marylou), of Liverpool, aunt, Sue Stubbs, of Cayuga, cousins, Karen (Don) Dorr, of Columbus, OH, Rick Latimer, of Dayton, OH, and Lee Stubbs-Konidaris (Michael), of Baldwinsville and many extended family.

She is now reunited in heaven with her mother, Theresa "Terri". She also leaves behind eight Godchildren who will miss her dearly.

Cee Cee had a heart of gold. She touched the lives of so many through her immense involvement in the community and commitment to volunteering. She always made her family proud with her contributions and successes. When she showed up to an event, husband Mike almost always at her side, she would look for ways to contribute and assist. She was passionate about all things sports, especially her beloved Bearcats, and could be found on the sidelines of any sporting event. And, despite harassment, she had the audacity to be a diehard fan of the Red Sox, as well as a steadfast Cowboys fan.

More than all else, she loved being a wife, daughter, sister, cousin, godmother, bunny mama, and friend. If you were lucky enough to be in her orbit, you cherished your time with her, knowing she was family. While you often had to look behind the camera lens to see her whole face, she was always there with a smile, Swedish Fish, and Pepsi at the ready. She has been an inspiration and source of encouragement, support, and guidance for an entire generation of students. She loved volunteering her time to anything that would support her Solvay Bearcats. She will be greatly missed, leaving so many of us with her captured memories and a big Cee Cee shaped hole in our lives.

Calling hours will be held at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Ave. in Solvay on Monday, January 10th from 4 to 7 pm. A small private family service will be held on Tuesday. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to one of Cee Cee's passions: Syracuse Challenger's Baseball, CNY SPCA, or Solvay Music Boosters.

“ Mike,

Please accept our deepest sympathies. The love and respect you both exhibited to your adopted Solvay athletes, we were fortunate to have been expanded to include the combined JD-CBA-Solvay-Westhill Wrestling Team. The photographs you both took documented the struggles, sacrifices, and occasionally, the successes, of all of our athletes. Even if at times, we had to explain to you the zaniness that is wrestling. Your photos were shared and used in media guides and in Senior night ceremonies for many years. We share with so many a feeling of loss, coupled with a sense of being blessed to have had Cee Cee in our lives.

“ My memory of Cee Cee goes back to when I took a sitting job for Charlie and Terri. I would go after school. Both her and her brother were the sweetest kids. I was a joy back then. This is the saddest news. Rest in peace Cee Cee.

“ It is with great sadness that I extend my sympathy to Charlie, Michael, and the rest of Cee Cee’s family. I knew her first as a youngster when I became a brother umpire with Charlie, and later on as a fellow photographer of the Syracuse Chiefs/Mets and of her beloved Challenger Baseball. Her dedication to the causes she supported will be a substantial part of her legacy, and her love of family, friends, and animals will add to the measure of a wonderful person who has been dearly loved and will be dearly missed.

“ Cee Cee was a wonderful member of my family by choice, the Andrew Clan. The whole clan was always there for me and my daughter, Wyndie. She was always a ray of sunshine, no matter what was going on and she is going to greatly missed. Although I am now pretty much home bound due to declining health, I no longer participate in their family activities, but the memories I have of her are really a precious thing.

“ Oh Cee Cee, I miss you more than you realize. Coming into work in the morning just isn't the same without your smile. I promise we will love your critters at the SPCA and we will give them all the love they deserve. I promise that each day I will do something kind for something else because that's what you taught us what is important.
