

CHRISTOPHER J. IMPAGLIA

February 13, 1982 - June 1, 2021

Christopher J. Impaglia, of Ridgewood Dr. in Syracuse passed away unexpectedly at 39 years young on June 1, 2021. Chris was born in Syracuse and raised in Camillus, NY, where he attended West Genesee High School and Onondaga Community College. Chris was multi-faceted, a jack of all trades through the years until he found his passion in sales. His charm and charisma would captivate everyone that he engaged in business as well as his social life. Chris loved many activities including golf, fishing, camping, and X-box live gaming. Chris also loved SU sports and the Buffalo Bills. These were his passions. His children were always included as he wanted them to love and be part of everything he did. He always wanted the best for them. Chris was a talented artist as well, a talent inherited from his Grandmother Marie Impaglia. Chris was always surrounded by friends and family; his presence was always known.

He was “that person” that everyone gravitated toward. His quick wit and overwhelming sense of humor always left an impression. He had an extraordinary knack to improvise and invent something from nothing. He loved Tie Dye and the Grateful Dead.

Chris was predeceased by his maternal grandparents, Patricia and Andrew Kolbasook, of Cato, paternal grandfather, Dr. Michael Impaglia, of Syracuse, as well several aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Chris is Survived by his mother, Tina L’Italien, of Saratoga Springs, father, John Impaglia, of Rochester, sons, Nicolas, Gianni, Anthony, and his daughter, Eden Marie, all of Syracuse, brothers, Anthony "Rocco" (Sara) and niece on the way (Charlotte), of Brewerton, and Philip (Amanda) and nephew, Logan, of Camillus, Fiancé, Ashley Scofield, of Syracuse, his paternal grandmother, Marie A. Impaglia, of Syracuse, and many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Chris was taken from his loving family and all his friends' way too soon and will always be remembered, just look at his smile!

“ Tina ~

I'm so truly sorry you have experienced such a loss! No doubt there's few words that can express what a mother feels with the loss of her son. No one will ever know a bigger grief, than a mother who lost her son too soon, like losing a piece of her soul. My heart hopes you find peace knowing he is eternally safe, and that you will love Chris always.
