“ Clara was one of my best friends.

We grew up together.

Clara lived on Lamont Ave and I lived on Woods Rd.

We had a lot of great times as teenagers.

She even had a Ford convertible at age 17 that took us down to North Salina Street cruising to Tino's for Pizza.

When we got older we had fun going to Atlantic City and Turning Stone.

May She Rest in Peace!

“ Clara was a wonderful and kind neighbor for many years. She was very good to our daughters Jennifer and Kristen. She would listen intently to whatever they talked about and smiled her radiant smile at them. Birthdays always meant presents and cards. At Christmas, Clara gave Santa a run for his money!

Polenta and chicken dinners were as wonderful as they were delicious.

Rest in Pease with the Lord, Clara.

“ Clara was a relative of my mother's family (Santorum). I have memories of her from many years ago and also of her mother, Santina. I remember Clara as very kind and sweet and she was always so nice to me as a child. My mother and aunts were very fond of her. My condolences to her family.
