

CLARENCE "BUTCH" McBURNAY

September 1, 1937 - May 21, 2021

Clarence L. McBurney, fondly known by his family and friends as "Butch" because of his tough and resilient nature, has passed away at the age of 84. He enjoyed traveling, golfing, watching old movies and listening to music from his favorite singer Dean Martin. He was an avid collector of all things Disney. He also loved reminiscing his youth living summers in Cleveland, New York at Vanderkamp Center and winters in St. Augustine, Florida. Although he worked for years in the construction field he was retired from many years at the Syracuse City School District. He has spent the last year of his life at Bishop Rehabilitation and Nursing Home where he frequently flirted with his nurses with a twinkle in his eye. We would like to thank the staff at Bishop for taking such good care of him during this year of difficult Pandemic.

He is survived by his daughters, Karen Anthony, of Syracuse and Kim Phillips, of Henderson, Nevada, 6 grandsons, 3 great grandchildren and lots and lots of nieces and nephews.

Family and friends may call from 4:00 pm-6:00 pm Friday May 28th at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Ave, Solvay. Private burial will be in Onondaga Valley Cemetery.

“ Sisters, I wish I got to see the Farm, or the Fair with you all. He he. Butch will be missed. He did always have a twinkle in his eye, and a good story. I guess I forgive him for bringing me back home when I attempted to stow away! <3

“ I will miss Uncle Butch so much. His stories are still so vivid. Especially the ones he would tell me about the circus that was held in a field near his house when he was a kid. He watched the animals being walked down the street from the train station. Can you imagine seeing a giraffe walking down South Ave. RIP

“ Dad ❤️🙏 One memory I see so clearly, is the times spent at the farm with you and Karen! Having tea time and playing board games and just exploring that big old rickety and sometimes spooky house! Love you Dad.. rest now! 😭

“ Karen and Kim and families

So sorry for your loss. I hope your dad is at peace and out of pain. Karen you carried him to the finish line and I am sure your love and support was invaluable to him.

We are keeping you all in our thoughts and prayers.
