Cynthia “Cindy” Dorfer is at last able to rest peacefully after a long struggle with COPD and be reunited with “Bud” in heaven. She passed peacefully surrounded by family at the noble age of 89 on May 4, 2023.

Cindy grew up in Syracuse, NY and spent her life as a homemaker, CNA, and Wal-Mart Garden Greeter. Cindy is best known for her love of bingo, animals, cards and was a champion UpWords player.

Cindy was a true matriarch and was affectionately known as Mama/Momma to all. She is predeceased by her parents, George and Florence (Conine) Walter, sister, Jean Bort and her husband, Francis “Bud” Dorfer.

She will be missed by her children, Deborah Van Dyke, of Parish, NY, Daniel Dorfer, of Dayton, VA, Diana Ressler, of Phoenix, NY, and Donna Dorfer, of Tampa, FL, 7 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchild.

The family would like to extend their gratitude and appreciation to the staff at St. Camillus and St. Joseph’s Hospital for taking such loving care of Cindy in her last months. Special thanks to her nephew, Ron Bort and cousin, Sister Collette, for their support.

Per Cindy’s wishes, there will be a private family burial. BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to Francis House, 108 Michaels Ave, Syracuse, NY 13208.

“ Dear Dorfer Family,

Buddy (AKA Francis, Bud's uncle and namesake) and I were very sorry to hear of Cyndi's passing. We loved the time we were able to attend family get togethers. Cyndi was a very special, kind, unique gentle soul who made everyone feel comfortable and welcome when in her presence. Bud enjoyed the times he ran into Cyndi There is no doubt that she is in the best of hands and she and Bud are smiling down on all of us together.

*She will be missed, our prayers are with you, sincerely,
Bud & Marion Dorfer*

Dave and I loved hanging out with her and Bud when we were living back in area. I know there is a great reunion up in Heaven with all our family members who passed. Especially with Uncle George and Grandma and Grandpa Walter.
