

DAVID L. BATES

April 30, 1941 - December 16, 2022

David L Bates, 81, of Elbridge, NY, passed away December 16th at Upstate University Hospital after a stroke. He was born in Painesville, OH, to the late Thomas and Viola (Gray) Bates. Dave worked for many years at AT&T and its descendants, contributing significantly to the development of the 911 and Enhanced 911 systems. Dave was a rail fan, model railroader, and ham radio operator. He enjoyed time spent with his friends at the YMCA pool and Jordan-Elbridge Senior Center Club. He was predeceased his parents and his brother Thomas Norman Bates.

David is survived by his wife Gloria (Worley), daughter, Jennifer Greenwald, sister, Caroline Woodworth, and a collection of nieces, nephews and cousins. The family will be holding private services. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in Dave's memory to the Alzheimer's Association.

BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, NY, has care of arrangements.

“ I am so sad, but happy to have known Dave. He was so happy to realize his ham operator license was not expired. We shared laughs and political discussions when having lunch at the Jordan senior center
