“ So sad to hear of Davids passing. He was most often called Meatball and he did love that nickname. To our boys he was always Uncle Meatball. From the day they were born he would come bounding in the door with his loud , loving voice. Where's the coffee and cookies, this as he was doing his very best to wake the Boys up. He was good at getting them ready to play, no matter what time it was. Oh how we all loved him. They loved going to the farm with him, they learned to love broccoli but only with garlic.. He was a big bear hug with lots of love about him. Love you Meatball, So wish I had the chance before you left to get one more of your big love filled hugs. Watch Out Heaven, David is on his way to Shake Things Up.

“ David was my best friend when I was about 18 years old. He always was happy and always made me laugh. I wish I had heard sooner so I could come pay my respects. I remember how he use to have his Mom make me homemade soup when ever I got sick which seemed a lot back then. Love you forever and always till we meet again my dearest friend. Colleen
