“ I had the pleasure of meeting Deb at an unfortunate time. We were roommates at upstate hospital and she pushed me to better myself and looked out for me and I did the same for her. We were separated once and somehow ended up back together! I was so grateful. I was discharged and then suffered quite a few setbacks so I was unable to go back to visit as I intended (and I couldn't remember her correct last name). I am so saddened to see this obituary but also know that she must be so much more peaceful. In the short couple of weeks we had together she made a lasting impression and she and her family will always hold a space inside my heart. She surely made it known just how proud she was of her grandchildren. I'm forever grateful that the lord set us in each others paths.
