

DEBORAH ANN SATURNO

January 17, 1957 - November 20, 2020

Deborah Ann Saturno, of Solvay, NY, passed away surrounded by her family Friday, November 20, 2020 after a courageous 8 year battle with cancer. Deb was born January 17, 1957, in Solvay, NY. She was a 1976 graduate of Westhill High School. Deb was an avid chef and Christmas cookie baker, who loved teaching her ways in the kitchen and spending time with her beautiful children and grand-children. Her greatest joys in life included sitting by the ocean, restoring furniture into beautiful pieces of art and playing games with her closest friends and family.

She served the Solvay School District as a devoted bus driver and district wide courier for 20 years, before that acting as the branch manager of Syracuse Savings Bank.

Deb was born to Angelo “Red” and Lena (Chairmonte) Valerio. She is survived by her wife, Sandra Marlow; her three daughters, Kristie (Bill) Serrano, of Baldwinsville, Joanna (Nick) Schuler, of Rochester, and Danielle (Josh) McAdam, of Clay; her step-son, Ryan Marlow, of Syracuse; her grand-daughters, Raylee and Adelynn Lewis-Serrano, and Isabella Serrano.

Calling hours will be held Tuesday, November 24, 2020 at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Ave, Solvay, NY 13209 from 4 - 6:30 pm. Facial coverings are required and NYS guidelines on gatherings will be observed.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Deb’s memory to the National Pancreatic Cancer Foundation.

Sending my most sincere condolences, thoughts and prayers to Deb and her loving family. I hadn't seen Deb since high school, but felt appreciative to have shared a small part of her life with you, through watching the beautiful remembrance video. Bless you all, especially during this difficult time.

“ I was saddened to see this obituary today. I have not seen Deb in many years but remember her very well. I worked with Deb back in the 70's at the Westhill Office of SSB. We had a great crew back then and always had a great time at work, even though we were always busy. I have fond memories of those times. My sympathy to all of Deb's family.
