“ Richard, Dawn, Michael, and Kelly, I was very fond of Ed.

I'm happy that I was able to attend Eds service at Holy Family Church. Kelly as I listened to your words of remembrance, BTW you did wonderfully. I heard Eds voice and seen his smile as your recalls mirrored the stories Ed shared as we sat outside in the sun. Ed wore proudly on display the pride and love he held for his children and family.

It has been said that timing is everything, I believe this to be true. Many years ago I walked a trail that starts up the road from my home on Kasson Rd. and ends at Split Rock Tavern. I walked through the door looking for a cold drink, a pool game and adult conversation. I found Ed sitting inside looking for the same thing. And until COVID arrived, I had found cold drinks, an early afternoon pool game and plenty of adult conversations.

Over the years as we laughed with the tavern staff (they all liked Ed too) and laughed at the behavior of the people that entered and left, it became clear to Ed and I, that we shared many of life's joys and heartaches.

So I remember Ed every-time I see a pool table, a can of Budweiser, the smoke smell of little cigars/cigarettes, sun shining on a picnic table and jokes that start out "Two men walk into a bar."

I am so happy that I walked through that door, for on that day my life changed for the better and so did my pool shooting. I'm saddened that the COVID years changed that.

Peace, Love and Happiness to one and all Godspeed

Oh Joe, this is one of the sweetest notes I have read.

Thank you so much for the kind words and sharing.

I wish he got up to TK's one last time, he was just so weak. He really loved it up there and the friends he made.

*Much love and hugs,
Kelly*
