“ DEAR Rita, Ed and Susan:
I convey my condolences to you and your families. Mr. Z always remembered to bring a carafe of his delicious coffee to Ed/Annette's house for me to drink. How thoughtful was that!!!
I am fortunate to know him through Annette, his daughter in law. And of course I love EJ, Jake and Dominic.
I am so impressed with his bowling and golf abilities. May God bless Mr. Z.

“ Sending our prayers for your family during this difficult time. My first memory of your Dad was at one of Jake and Vince's football games in Lafayette. He went to the snack shack to get some popcorn and when he came back walked right across the middle of the field during the game. Your Mom was telling him to get off the field and he just didn't seem to care. It was funny. We all laughed.
