

EMMA FEDELI

September 6, 1929 - April 14, 2020

Emma Fedeli, 90, of Solvay, passed away unexpectedly Tuesday. She was born in Solvay to the late Charles and Letizia (Rota) Fedeli where she lived her whole life. She worked at the A&P as a grocery clerk for many years. She then moved on to work as a teller for Geddes Federal Savings & Loan until she retired. Emma was a lifelong communicant of St. Marianne Cope Parish-St. Cecilia Church. She was predeceased by her sister Mary Murawski and brother Eugene Fedeli.

She is survived by a sister, Faye Scott, of Sacramento, California; four nieces, Cynthia Scott, David Scott, Ann David-Salati, and Henry Murawski and a great-niece and several great-nephews.

Funeral services were private followed by burial in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Warners. At this time, a Memorial Mass has not been scheduled due to travel and gathering restrictions.

BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME has care of arrangements.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Emma's memory to: St. Marianne Cope Parish, 105 Stanton Ave, Solvay, NY 13209.

“ My condolences to the family. I will miss talking about SU sports with her. Joe used to call her for every game. Then I tried to remember to do it. Now she is probably up in heaven talking sports with Joey and Eugene. She will be missed.
