“ To my dear Aunt Esther...I will always remember teasing you and you acted like you were upset and would say"Carolyn Ann" I'm going to get you and I would laugh and say"Aunt Esther" and we would both giggle...and you would try to give me a love slap but I was too fast for you to catch me. And I feel blessed that for so many years I was able to enjoy Grandma and Grandpa DeJohn and Aunt Esther as they lived down the street from my family on Charles Ave. And all my aunts and uncles and cousins...We really had a fun childhood with such a motley crazy crew! Never a dull moment! All the family dinners at my mom and dads tiny house. But we always made room! Fun times and memories! I do miss those days! And thank you Rebecca for bringing back to my remembrance of Aunt Esther's jingly pockets! I am thankful that she is at peace now! It is difficult and painful to watch a loved one suffer! I will always remember and love you Aunt Esther!

“ Aunt Esther, one of the sweetest , kindest people I know. A big heart and a big smile. I remember playing in your room as a kid and trying on your lipsticks and how you loved Englebert Humperdink. I will miss you and know that you were loved. Fly high!

“ All always remember the times you'd come over and watch us and watching your favorite movies and of course the loose change in your pockets. You were one of the kindest people I have ever known. Please give my grandpa a hug and kiss from me and the kids. Rest easy aunt Esther. Love you

“ Aunt Esther, you were always a smiling face, a warm spirit and a loving person. I will always miss you and hope that you are now at peace and resting easy. Ill never forget the way we used to banter back and forth and how youd always tell me "youre gonna get it" when Id call you Poly-Esther, and have a huge smile while you were saying it. Youve always been a caring person and Ill miss that the most about you....

Rest in Peace, and know that we all love you....

Goodbye for Now
