

FRANCES M. (KALETTA) VINCENT

July 11, 1945 - March 24, 2024

We are saddened to announce that Frances Mary Vincent passed away unexpectedly on March 24, 2024. It does, however, give us great peace to know that she was finally reunited with her beloved mother and father, whom she missed very much, and her jovial brother-in-law John Naples. We are sure that Fran is super busy catching up with her mom - and probably hasn't let that poor woman get in a single word yet!

As a lifelong resident of Syracuse, Fran was first known as the youngest daughter of Anna and Joseph Kaletta. She loved dance class, her mother's cooking, and her father's comedy.

As a young woman, Fran was best known for her love of all things Elvis, her friendship with her cousin Little Margie, and the good-hearted harassment of her big sister Margaret!

As a wife of 49 years to her husband Jeremiah, Fran was best known for being so amiable that she actually allowed her wedding pictures to be taken on a baseball diamond!

As a mother to her daughter Annie and son Jerry, Fran was best known for getting every single thing on their Christmas lists, providing unconditional love, and being super calm that one time when Jerry drove her car through the garage wall.

As a grandmother to her granddaughters Margaret and Elizabeth she was best known for her famous meatballs - and delivering them with sauce for Betsy, and without sauce for Maggie.

As a lifelong friend, Fran was best known for her daily check-in texts, wild casino trips, extravagant cookie trays, and innumerable good deeds. And perhaps most importantly, as a sister to Margaret Naples, Fran was best known as a fierce ally, devoted friend, and lifelong confidant.

“ Our family knows Fran as "Miss Fran." She cared for our family in so many ways....from trecking the kids to Dr. appointments, to dance classes and being there when the kids got on and off the bus. She was a godsend. When the kids graduated from high school, we still stayed in touch. The weekly text messages wishing us a good week were always kind. I remember, Miss Fran saying...." it takes work to keep connected to people you care about, but it is well worth the effort." We will forever remember Miss Fran as a servant person to so many others. She was selfless and cared for everyone without any expectations. We are sure God has a plan for her in heaven. Love, the Coolican Family

She was such a wonderful friend and so supportive to me when my husband passed away. She was truly a devoted friend and will always be in my heart. Love you always.
