

FRANK M. WOJTALEWSKI

November 18, 1942 - March 15, 2022

Frank M. Wojtalewski, 79, of Solvay, passed away Wednesday March 9th at home. He was born in Liverpool to the late Stanley and Mary (Bednar) Wojtalewski, Sr. in 1942. Frank worked as a boilermaker for Allied Chemical in Solvay from 1976-1986 and later in shipping and receiving for Carpenter's Manufacturing in Manlius for 20 years before retiring in 2010. He and his wife, Georgia, were avid bowlers. He also loved spending time with his children, building model cars and watching sports. Frank was predeceased by his wife, Georgia Anne "Rusty" (Walker), his brother, Stanley Jr and sister, Catherine Mader.

He is survived by his children; Darlene Morgan, of Solvay, Mary Emilo, of Solvay and Brian Wojtalewski, of Syracuse; 5 grandchildren, Joe Emilo, Katilynn and Kimberly Morgan, Sara Emilo and Jeremy Riley with a great-grandson "on the way", Bently Becker, and many nieces and nephews. Services were private.

BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in his memory to the American Heart Association, PO Box 840692, Dallas, TX 75284-0692.
