“ I can remember sitting with Judy and her mother in Solvay on several weekends throughout the years watching Golden Girls and Harry Potter movies over and over again to the point that I can still recite them word for word and love each and every episode!

My nephew Christian Kaminski and I would often join Judy and her mother coloring Easter Eggs or sitting around the fire pit enjoying the evenings. Christian visited often back then and enjoyed helping. He wanted me to express his sadness over the loss of such a special person and to say that she would be in his heart forever!
