

GRACE (YALE) BURKE

January 20, 1946 - May 7, 2023

Grace was ushered into heaven Sunday May 7, 2023 after a courageous battle with cancer with her fiancé Donald Lehtonen at her side. Grace was born January 20, 1946 to Harris and Helen Yale. She was a lifelong resident of Syracuse. Grace graduated from Westhill High School and went on work as an insurance secretary. That is where she met her husband Nicholas Burke who predeceased her in 1997. Grace retired in from the medical practice of Dr. Indira Koshy where she was her office manager. Grace was a member of First Christian Assembly Church with her family for many years and sang in many choirs alongside her husband Nicholas as he directed them. Grace also was an avid crafter. She made beautiful afghans and loved ceramics.

Grace is also predeceased by her parents, Harris and Helen (McDonald) Yale, and her siblings, Harris Jr. and Janet Fish.

Survivors are her children, Jennifer Burke Pallone (Ronald), of Largo, Florida, Amy Burke (Jeffrey), of Solvay, Matthew Burke (Candace Orabanec) and Charles Burke, of Yelm, Washington. Her grandchildren that were the joy of her life, Nicole, Hallie, Collin, Aislinn, Connor, Aric, Jeremy, Jack, Nora and Maxx. Grace was also blessed with 7 great grandchildren and sister, Mary Dlugosz, of Arizona.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, May 13, 2023 at 11:00 AM at Encounter Christian Fellowship, 705 Hamilton Street, Syracuse 13204. Burial will follow in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Warners. BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements. Please share online
