

GREGORY R. KARWOWSKI

November 22, 1969 - July 29, 2025

Greg Karwowski, born in 1969, a sheet metal welder for local 58, passed away peacefully at Upstate University Hospital at age 55. He graduated from Solvay High school, and attended BOCES trade school before becoming a welder.

Surviving are his loving sons, Lukas and Logan Karwowski; his mother, Anna Karwowski, brother, Adam Karwowski and sister, Eva Root who were by his side.

A few hobbies of his he enjoyed included Skiing, fishing, metal working, art drawing and swimming. He was a loving father full of adventure and fun memories.

Family and friends may call from 12:30 PM - 1:00 PM Thursday August 7, 2025 at St. Marianne Cope Parish-Our Lady of Peace Church, 203 Halcomb St, Lakeland with a Memorial Mass to be celebrated immediately following at 1:00 PM.

Previous Events

Visitation

AUG 7. 12:30 PM - 1:00 PM (ET)

ST. MARIANNE COPE PARISH; OUR LADY OF PEACE CHURCH
203 HALCOMB ST.
SYRACUSE, NY 13209

Memorial Mass

AUG 7. 1:00 PM (ET)

ST. MARIANNE COPE PARISH; OUR LADY OF PEACE CHURCH
203 HALCOMB ST.
SYRACUSE, NY 13209

Tribute Wall

MN

“ I was just searching for Adam and Eva when I came across this obituary for Greg. I am so very sorry to hear of his passing. My condolences to his entire family.
Michelle (Klunder) Navarro

Michelle Navarro - November 11, 2025 at 10:56 AM

KK

“ Greg was a great guy.I grew up with him and adam cause adam had the drums and I love to play the drums and greg would always interrupt us l o l. Adam's little brother grew up to be a great man. I would.
Run into a mall the time in Lakeland we always have a great conversation.He had a cool calm toughness to him. God bless his family adam and eva and their mom. He will be.
Missed. I was like what queen elizabeth said. " Grief is the price we pay for love" god bless you take care of my good buddy

Kevin Kimball - August 11, 2025 at 09:11 AM