

HAROLD "HARRY" HOMMEL

July 2, 1946 - August 13, 2022

Harold "Harry" Hommel, 76, a resident of Baldwinsville, NY, passed away peacefully at home Saturday, August 13, 2022. Born to the late Harold and Magdalena (Winter) Hommel in Saugerties, New York, he graduated from Saugerties High and Ulster Community College. He worked for IBM then moved to Syracuse with Pitney Bowes, then Hilti Tools and Holy Family School. Harry possessed a magnetic personality. Wherever he went, he loved to converse with enthusiasm about politics, home repairs, fishing, gardening, guns, boating and bluegrass music. He was a proud member of the Coast Guard Auxiliary, a faithful choir member for twenty years in the St. Marianne Cope Parish choir, and a wonderful husband to Betty and father to Sue (Jeff) Hommel, Harold Stephen (Jay) Hommel, Nathan (Nicholle) Hommel, Lora (Andy) Davis and Kurt Hommel. He was so proud of his four granddaughters, Katelyn and Lindsay Davis and Olivia and Simone Hommel.

The family would like to thank Brian and Gina, Lori, Diane, Anne, Cheryl and especially daughter, Sue who took such good care of him these last years.

“ My deepest condolences to the Hommel family on the passing of Harry. I worked in the service department of Pitney Bowes when Harry was in the Sales department. The thing I remember about Harry was his like of his Mersades car and he also liked to have one of everything.

Jim Becker - August 18, 2022 at 10:35 PM

“ To Nate, who is more or less a brother to me, and the entire Hommel family, our sincere condolences to you in these very difficult days. From the Alper family - David, Ana, Victoria and Alexandra.

David Alper - August 17, 2022 at 12:34 AM

“ *Betty,
I'm sorry for your family's loss. I always remember most Harry's smile. He was fun to talk to and listen to.
