“ Helen lived next door to us in Westvale for many years. She was a dear friend and a second grandmother to our daughters Melissa and Maureen. The girls would spend many a day playing cards with her on the tray table in the living room or watching the Price is Right in the chaise lounge chair. On a summer day she could be found out in the yard either mowing or tending to her flowers. It was always a special treat when the girls got to help her hose off the back patio! Although she lived most of her life alone, she made the most of it and worked hard taking care of her home. She was known by many at Chappells in Westvale and then Bon Ton in Camillus. She also made time for the things she loved, bowling and golf and a night out with the girls at the Westwood and talked all the time about her brothers, sisters in law and their children.

We cherish the years we spent with her. She was a part of our family.
