

HENRIETTA (IRWIN) DANNIBLE

August 20, 1928 - January 16, 2022

Henrietta Dannible, 93, of Camillus, affectionately known as “Hank”, passed away on Sunday. She was born in Pennsylvania to the late Cyreneus and Helen (Tudor) Irwin. Her parents moved to Syracuse when she was young, where she attended school, married, and had children.

Throughout her life, Henrietta had an instinctual ability to take care of others; she cared for her mom, siblings, godparents, children, neighbors and grandchildren. She had a generous heart and a bright soul. She was truly an angel on earth, helping anyone and everyone she could. She was welcoming to all and had many close friends, neighbors and family who loved her dearly. She always found the good in everyone and was a cheerful conversationalist. Family was everything to her and she was especially proud of her grandchildren and great grandchild; she loved them dearly. On summer afternoons, she enjoyed her flower garden and tomato plants. She loved being surrounded by art and beauty. She also enjoyed watching classic movies with family and friends. Dancing, singing, and storytelling were part of her playful and whimsical side. Her sense of humor was playful, witty, and a delight to everyone around her. One afternoon with her could easily win over your heart!

She was predeceased by her loving husband, Phillip Dannible, of 62 years, 2 sisters: Esther Angona and Sarah Jordan and 3 brothers: Charles, Frank, and Floyd Irwin.

She is survived by 2 daughters: Donna (Bill) Cerio, of CA, Pamela (Paul)

Bianchi, of Liverpool and 2 sons, Phillip, of Syracuse and Joseph, of VA, 4 grandchildren: Ezra Cerio, of CA, Joseph Dannible, Jr, of VA, Heather and Thomas Bianchi, of Liverpool and 1 great-grandson, Elliot Cerio, of CA, brother, John Irwin and many nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and in-laws.

Donna Cerio, I had just been looking through the obituaries of Bagozzi Twins and saw this tribute for your beautiful mom. I remember her well, she always had a beautiful smile, and we did have some laughs, back in the day. So sorry to hear of her passing, we have lost touch throughout the years, I think of you often too, and wondered where you were. Prayers for you and family. Look me up on facebook if you are on there, send a friend request if you can so we can talk. I don't want to post my phone # on this site. Love you Donna, hope you are well..

“ My best man and I were in a backroom at the old Holy Family church, no longer standing ....not my fault. Your mom and Mary showed up minutes prior to me getting married, I figured she was there to tell me Pam was still single :), I was surprised as it was about a decade since I last saw her, she wanted me to know she thought I was a swell guy and gave me $10. Who does that?? I'm chuckling to myself thinking about her doing that, she was such a great lady, I'm glad to see she had a long full life, rest in peace Hank.
