“ So sorry to read of your Mom. I remember her well milling around the old house back in the day on Milton Ave, where i spent a lot of afternoons after school. Shelley & I have lost both of our parents, but the memories will last forever as yours will.

*May God be with the entire Haresky Family.

“ My Dear, Dear Irene...I will miss having you here on Earth with me! Irene was my 2nd Mom while I was best friends with her son, Steve. She was there for me all during my teenage years while I was down at her house more than I was at my own. She fed me, shared stories with me, gave me motherly advice and did all those things with that cute smile on her face and twinkle in her eye. She was there for me when I graduated high school. She was there for me when I entered military service. She was there for me when I returned home to bury my Dad. She was there for me later in life when I married and had children. She was there to welcome them with open and loving arms whenever we would return home for visits. She was always there for me and truly did treat me like one of her very own children. She has provided to me the gift of lasting friendships with those children. I feel very blessed to have had her love and influence in my life!

My deepest sympathies and condolences to my “brother and sisters” Steven, Valerie, Lisa, and their families. I know the loss of your Mom will affect you greatly, but you can be proud of your efforts caring for her during her twilight years. I (we) love you all!
