“ Dear Fred, Cindy, Debbie and Grandchildren,

I was so sorry to hear of Iva's passing. Although I now live quite far from home in Las Cruces, NM, I hold onto the memories of my childhood and the special times shared with special people like yourselves. Iva was a beautiful person, both inside and out, and it was always a special treat to visit the Frchetti household. I especially remember the time a huge feast of Polenta Carbonara was made outside for all to enjoy. I've never had better! I am glad that Iva was surrounded by those she loved in the comfort of her own home. I will remember you all in my prayers.
