

JAMES BRIAN DABY

October 16, 1948 - November 8, 2025

James Brian Daby, 77, died on November 8, 2025 after a long illness. He was born in Ossining, New York to Elwin and Mary Elizabeth (Naughton) Daby. After attending Paul Smiths College, he joined the Navy for 4 years. After being discharged, he moved to New York City where he lived until moving to Syracuse in 2007. He enjoyed working as a bus driver for Centro. He is predeceased by his parents and brother, William. He is survived and sorely missed by his domestic partner, Susan Sheffield; his sister, Susan Sumner; nieces, Christine Percopo and Debra Sumner; great nephew, Christopher Percopo and great niece, Kate Percopo. He will be dearly missed. Jim never wanted to be the center of attention, therefore a private funeral service was held at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, honoring his wishes. Those that wish to remember Jim may make gifts in his memory to the Central New York SPCA, www.cnyspca.org/donate
