“ Dear Kelly,

Just a note to let you know that you and your sons are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. Jim was such a kind man- who always talked about his family with such love. He did so much beautiful work on our Summer home- and spent some time with our family on Owasco Lake swimming with your family. Thank you for sharing him with us- he had such a kind heart. “ Kelly, Dylan, and Jessie
We were so sad to hear of Jim's passing. He quickly went from a contractor on our house to a friend for life. He was second to none as a craftsman but his genuine concern for us stands out. When we asked for some strange job request he'd say sure then somehow figure it out. We really loved Jim and will miss him very much. Our hearts go out to you and hope you find some solace knowing how much Jim was loved and appreciated.

“ The DeSena Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was a wonderful, thoughtful, talented man. He remodeled a lot of my parents' house. He spent so much time at our house his mother would call in the evening, first apologizing that her son must be such a bother, and to send him home. We would all just laugh! For example, every morning he arrived with Dunkin coffee for my mom and him to have and chat at the kitchen table. One time my sister was stranded at her friend's house and her car needed a jump and he left to help her out. There are a ton of stories like this For a period of about two years he was a member of our family. My sincere condolences to everyone.

“ Jim was a great friend and brother-in-law. Along life’s journey we helped each other on home projects, however spent most of our time enjoying common interests. Jim worked hard to play hard. I will remember many fond things about Jim, but over the last few days I keep reflecting on Jim’s inspirations and interests as they formed the foundation of his character. Those that spent time with Jim could easily pick up on his inspirations and interest from his statements and actions or assume the same from his many tattoos that included family, freedom, religion, and recreational toys. He loved his family and enjoyed his toys. I’ll miss you brother.
