“ Becky & Kim, I am so sorry for your families loss. I met your family at estate sales and your entire group & family were the kindest people! Your mom was always right there making sure everything ran smoothly. It always did of course. She always had a huge welcoming smile on her face. She will be extremely missed by so many people. I apologise for not seeing this till now. I don't get the weekday papers, and as your aware, on Sundays I'm always out looking for a deal! I will keep you all in my thoughts and prayers. I am heartbroken I missed this. Today, going through the we remember section, your mom's beautiful face jumped out of the page on me. I know how much you must be hurting still. I want to send my sincere condolences to you all. She was strong and a fighter. Again, I can't say how sorry I am for your families huge loss. You will have a strong beautiful Angel always looking over you. Please except our apologies for missing this notice. I am truly sorry, sending you all love and warm wishes!

Your estate followers,

Michelle & Dawn

Becky and Mark... so sorry to hear of Jeannie's passing. What a gift she was to this world! So many great memories our family has that include your Mom. She was so easy and fun to be around. Always smiling and laughing. Talk about reliable and loyal... she was such a good friend to my Mom (Betsy). And those beautiful green eyes of hers always remind me of Mom's. She was a BEAUTIFUL woman inside and out. I know you know this, and anyone who knew her knows it too. Love and prayers to you and your family.

Becky and Mark,

I am so sorry to hear about Jeanne. No longer in the Syracuse area, news reaches us slowly at times. My mom, Weezie, is smiling to have her join the "Golden Girls" in heaven, but I know here on Earth, she will be missed by so many. My memories are of a wonderful woman, sweet and loving, and always fun to be around. I hope your memories will brighten your days and help you to smile again soon. Keeping you both close in our thoughts and prayers. Kathy and Gregg MacDonald and the Neufang family.
