

JoANN (LoBELLO) KINANE

July 20, 1945 - July 29, 2021

JoAnn (LoBello) Kinane, 76, of Minoa, New York, passed away peacefully July 29, 2021 at St. Joseph's Hospital after a brief illness. JoAnn was born to the late Lucy and Joseph LoBello on July 20, 1945 in Syracuse, New York. She was predeceased by her husband of 36 years, David Patrick Kinane.

She is survived by two loving children, Patrick (Pamela) Kinane and Sarah (Mark) Parrish and her sister, Linda Kenyon, all of Baldwinsville, New York.

She leaves behind two grandchildren who she adored, Ryan and Laura Kinane. JoAnn also had two nieces and a nephew who were very important to her and loved by her throughout her life.

JoAnn was a 32 year proud survivor of breast cancer. After a long and successful career, JoAnn retired from New Venture Gear and devoted her retirement years to her family and her love of animals. She volunteered many hours to the SPCA of Central New York and the Humane Association of Central New York. Along with her dogs, she enjoyed educating the public on the plight of homeless animals and raising funds to help animals in need.

JoAnn loved crafting, painting, and making her own holiday cards, which family and friends looked forward to receiving each year.

“ Deepest sympathy to the family and friends of JoAnn. I have fond childhood memories at Aunt Lucy & Uncle Joe's house especially at Christmastime. They had the most beautifully decorated Christmas trees I've ever seen every year -- and the food and fun unmatched! Can still see you and Dave sitting at the dinner table. Such good times. May you be at everlasting peace with those you love JoAnn. We share the same love for animals & Dogs. Cynthia

“ Dear Aunt JoAnn: You will be so missed. Thank you for your humor, your creativity, your kindness. We are very grateful that Isla and I were able to spend some time with you pre-pandemic. She adores and still plays with her giant elephant nearly every day. Thinking of the Kinane, Parrish, and Kenyon families and sending our love and support. Much love, Erin, Greg, Isla, and Vesper
