“ Jody loved life. He loved cooking, he had an amazing talent of tickling the taste buds. He loved my mother more than himself. He was always an upbeat and positive person that always had a smile on his face. He will be missed beyond words. Give em' hell up there Jody we'll miss ya down here! - Stephen Dellairo

I was glad we were able to reconnect and catch up on all the childhood memories. Until we meet again Jody.

Jody's grandparents were our neighbors on Parkside Ave. I am so sorry to here this. I remember him as a sweet child. My sincere condolences to Jim, John and Kathy.
