

JOSEPH F. RESCIGNANO

March 28, 1941 - November 3, 2017

Joseph F. Rescignano, 76, passed away peacefully after a brief illness, in Palm Springs, CA on November 3, 2017. Joe graduated from Solvay High School and continued his education at Syracuse University, earning a degree in Fine Arts. He then went on to the serve his country, in the United States Army, stationed in Germany. After a short stay in Syracuse, he moved to Chicago then onto San Francisco, CA where he lived and worked for the Federal Reserve Bank for over 30 years. He enjoyed a very full life; filled with friends and culture and San Francisco was truly his home. After retiring in 2013, he left his beloved city to relax in the warm sun of Palm Springs, CA where he resided for the last four years.

Joe was predeceased by his parents, Joseph Rescignano in 1963 and Anne (Nareski Rescignano) McCarthy in 2010. An only child, he is survived by one aunt, Bette Rescignano Betts (George) and several cousins. Joe's best friend and cousin, Frances DeStefano, were bonded from childhood and was truly his confidante, and anchor throughout his life. He also leaves behind a plethora of friends both in California and Central New York.

Joe always wanted his final resting place to be back in Syracuse, NY.

Memorial services will be held 9:30 am Tuesday, November 21st at BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, 2601 Milton Ave, Solvay, New York, burial will follow in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

“ So sorry to hear of Sonny's passing. I knew he had been sick for some time. Cioc Anne was my godmother. He was a special person and we all thought a lot of him. With his passing my family has become even smaller. May he rest in peace.
