“ Our family had a lot of happy times hanging out with Joe and Ro. They always treated us like family and I always enjoyed all the schtick going on. I always felt like I was at a private gourmet Italian restaurant and enjoyed the best food, wine, apps, olives, and conversation. Joe and Ro were always generous, had great taste,, and always welcomed everyone over. I hope to carry on those traditions with my family. They will be missed until we catch up again. My sincere condolences to the Sardo family.

“ It is known that sometimes you can see angels dancing in a cloud, painting rainbows and sunsets. All of things you loved to do. Rest peacefully as we know the view is beautiful and you are doing just fine. Until we meet again go dance with your beautiful wife and toss a few shooting stars here at us to let us know you are happy in spirit and peace.

“Joey was that warm, loving Italian guy that everyone loved. His laughter could be heard all over the house. We spent countless hours in that wonderful kitchen on Ontario Ave. cooking, laughing, drinking and listening to Joey and Roe bicker about what went in what recipe and just how to do it! He and Roe helped transform our garage for Leslie's graduation party complete with a centerpiece appetizer station and they wouldn't let me have a glass of wine until all the food was out, lol.. Joey was a treasure and it was our privilege and blessing to have known and loved him. RIP Joey, rest with Roe in the arms of Jesus. We love you.
