“ During the past sixty plus years that I have known Joe and his family, while we were growing up together on Armstrong Road, I have known Joe to be such a caring and giving guy - always willing to help anyone in need and always such a pleasure to spend time with and be around!

Having Joe as my best friend for so many years I can truly say that Joe lived his life as described in First Corinthians 13:4-8

4: Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant

5: or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful;

6: it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth.

7: Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

8: Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

Joe loved spending time with his family while he was growing up, his wife Karen, his three children Brittany, Nick, Adam and his beloved grandchildren Giada, Cooper, Aiden and Elliana. Joe's special love and compassion for animals in need especially for his dogs which he loved so much brought so much joy into Joe's life.

May the love of God through his Son, our Savior Jesus Christ comfort and bless his family through this difficult time.

We are all going to miss you Joe, rest in peace my friend! Love, Bob Manzano
