“ John and family. Please accept our condolences on your loss. We have very fond memories of Julia and your father, and loved them very much. We don't get out much anymore and some mobility issues prevented us from getting to the services, but Julia and your family are in our prayers. We are sure it was a celebration of a full life well lived. With love, Tony and Mary Bianchetti and family.

“ Our neighbor across the street when I was growing up. I can still hear Frank singing "Julie, Julie, do you love me?" while he worked in the yard, and we all knew the answer was a resounding yes, and vice versa. Rest in peace and condolences to the family. Sincerely, Al Gidari

“ Loved so many summer visits to HH watching Grandma Albrigo whip something up in the kitchen! So sweet and always wanted to be sure that we were enjoying ourselves:) Such fond memories I carry with me. My life has been exponentially better having the Albrigo a part of it, Grandma included! May they both be re-united and dancing above us! RIP-
