“ To The Leabo Family and Extended Family, I remember through the years at your Aunt Sally's house all the street games we would play and up at prospect school baseball games till dark. The Laughs and fun times. Larry was a special guy. Beautiful smile and thoughtful guy. He's with his brother John, and loved ones in heaven living his new life with everyone. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. May he RIP. GOD BLESS.

“ Larry was a wonderful friend, who I was lucky to have known. He was always optimistic and would always be the first to lend a helping hand. His blunt sense of humor and story telling always made our visits enjoyable. You will be missed Larry. To his family and friends my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.
