“ So sorry for your family’s loss, for the few times we had met over the years she was always extremely welcoming and I was envious of the love and support she gave to her family. Remember the day she laughed so hard when Art and I had discussed the extreme similarities that my grandmothers name was babcia to. Totally not In touch with my heritage, I know you had suffered thru illness for some time. Thank you for our interactions and the wonderful family members you gave to me as friends. Safe travels
