

LILLIAN (WILLIAMS) ANTOLINI

December 10, 1934 - November 19, 2021

Lillian (Williams) Antolini, 86, of Indian Harbour Beach, FL, passed away on Friday, November 19th. She was a lifelong resident of Syracuse but moved to Florida a year ago to be closer to family. Lillian graduated from Vocational High School and was employed as an executive secretary at Carrier Corporation. Lillian was a member of the Ladies Home Bureau and the Girl Scouts of America, where she served as a troop leader. Lillian was well known throughout Central New York as a farmer at the Regional Market since the 1960's and as a vendor at the Saugerties Garlic Festival for 26 years. She was an extensive reader, creative baker, great caregiver for her pets, loved working in her flower gardens and making bouquets for friends and neighbors, found beauty in nature, had an adventurous soul with a love of travel, and won numerous awards at the New York State Fair for her homemade jams. She was especially proud of her "beautiful and smart" grandchildren. Lillian is predeceased by her loving and devoted husband of 61 years, Ronald, her parents, William and Lottie (Wadowiec) Williams, and brother, Robert Williams.

She is survived by her daughters; Stephanie (Neal) Stein and Elizabeth (Michael) Hepp, and grandchildren; Steven Hepp, Julia Stein, Alexandria Hepp and David Stein, and many cousins.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated 10:00 am Saturday, November 27th at St. Marianne Cope Parish-Our Lady of Peace Church, 203 Halcomb Street, Lakeland, with visitation prior to the commencement of the Mass from 9:30 - 10:00 am. Interment will immediately follow the Mass at Sacred Heart Cemetery in Lakeland. BAGOZZI TWINS FUNERAL HOME, Solvay, has care of arrangements. Contributions in Lillian's memory can be made to SPCA 5878 East Molloy Road, Syracuse, NY 13211.
