

LUCILLE A. DeSTEFANO

August 6, 1939 - December 9, 2021

Lucille A. DeStefano, 82, of Solvay passed away December 9, 2021. Lucille was a life-long Solvay resident and a graduate of Solvay High School. She spent her entire professional career at Nationwide Insurance with more than 30 years of commendable service. Lucille enjoyed traveling in her younger years and loved sharing photos and stories of her vacations. She spent her life choosing happiness and always giving more than she received. She fiercely cared for her mother her entire life with an abundance of love and devotion. She adored her family and had unbreakable bonds with both her sister Ro and her brother Frank. She shared a once in a lifetime friendship with her sister-in-law, Fran. Her greatest love was that of her three nephews and niece of which she treated as her own children and loved beyond measure. She spread that same love to their children as the family grew. She will be missed dearly. Lucille was predeceased by her parents, Frank and Josephine DeStefano.

Survivors include her beloved sister, Rosemary LeFevre, of Solvay; her adored brother, Frank (Frances), of Westvale; nephew, Michael LeFevre, of Solvay; nephew, Frank LeFevre, of Solvay; nephew, Frank DeStefano, of Westvale; niece, Janine (Bryan) Spiro, of Arlington, VA and several great nieces and nephews. She was, and will always be, everyone's "Aunt Lu". Lucille's family will share memories of their very loved sister and aunt in a private remembrance.
